

CALIFORNIA REGIONAL WATER QUALITY CONTROL BOARD
COLORADO RIVER BASIN REGION

ADMINISTRATIVE CIVIL LIABILITY COMPLAINT NO. 98-070
ISSUED TO
MIZAR INCORPORATED, OWNER/OPERATOR
EASY CAR WASH

You are alleged to have violated California Water Code Section 13267 for which the Board may impose civil liability under Section 13268. The submission of punctual and complete monitoring reports is of considerable importance to efficient regulation by this Regional Board. The following facts are the basis for the alleged violations in this matter:

VIOLATION
DESCRIPTION:

A self-monitoring report was due in the office of the Regional Water Quality Board no later than January 15, 1998. A Notice of Violation was sent to you on February 27, 1998. However, as of May 8, 1998 a complete report was not received by the Regional Board.

STATUTE
VIOLATION:

Violation of Section 13267 of the California Water Code.

STATUTE
AUTHORIZING ACL:

This violation of California Water Code Section 13267 is subject to administrative civil liability pursuant to Section 13268 of the California Water Code.

MAXIMUM LIABILITY:

$113,000.00 ($1,000 each day the report is late)

FACTORS
TO CONSIDER:

In determining the amount of civil liability, the Regional Board considers the nature, circumstance, extent and gravity of the violations, whether the discharge was susceptible to cleanup and abatement, the degree of toxicity of the discharge, and with respect to the discharger, the ability to pay, the effect on ability to continue in business, any voluntary cleanup efforts, prior history of violations, degree of culpability, economic savings, if any, resulting from the violation and other matters as justice may require.

PROPOSED ADMINISTRATIVE CIVIL LIABILITY:

The Executive Officer of this Regional Board proposes that administrative civil liability be imposed by the Regional Board in the amount of $217.00 be submitted immediately.
